> HOLDING UP CHINESE YOUTH. Y. Sang Mark, a Chinese youth, arrived by the S. S. Sonoma from the Colonies Monday to stop-over at this place. He is going from the Tonga islands to the mainland to enjoy a scholarship given by Bishop Willis out of appreciation for his assistance at Tonga. Sang Mark wanted to remain here three months, but the immigration authorities limited his stop-over privilege to one month on the grounds that he was a Chinese and it was a violation of the Chinese Exclusion Act for him to remain longer. An appeal may be made to Washington to allow him to remain the full time desired.
